General Manager and Chairman of UIRR: his views on the actual challenges in railway transport

During the 48th congress of the INTERNATIONAL RAIL FREIGHT BUSINESS ASSOCIATION (IBS) e.V. in Vienna, RAILMARKET.com interviewed Ralf-Charley Schultze, President of the International Union for Road-Rail Combined Transport \(UIRR\).

Ralf-Charley sees that rail logistics within the next ten years has to be much more innovative than today.

„We have momentum today. And this momentum is related to the new legislation that the European Commission will be proposing next year. It will also be about Combined Transport, the low-hanging fruit for railways in the future because only Combined Transport will permit to
